

Harold Jerome Faucher

April 26, 1928 - February 26, 2016

SAN DIEGO — Harold "Harry" Jerome Faucher (87) died peacefully in his sleep 2-26-16, after a stroke had left him confined to a wheelchair since November of 2013. Harry was born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, to Henry and Annette Faucher of Foshay Electric Company, the middle of two brothers, Louis (2009) and Donald (1998). Harry graduated from St. Augustine High School in 1946, where he earned the reputation of "Muscle Man" and the "Great Elucidator." Harry went on to San Diego Junior College, leaving to develop what would be a lifetime career in sales. He was a natural negotiator, problem solver, and teacher; talents that would serve him well throughout his life. Harry enjoyed and excelled in sports becoming Mr. YMCA in 1950 and receiving awards from power lifting to racquetball championships. An outdoorsman, Harry enjoyed, to name just a few: golfing, fishing, running, and in later years, becoming an avid cyclist. Harry was a man of many talents including backyard vegetable gardening and singing. In his younger years, Harry sang in the parish choir and later harmonizing in the local Barbershop Quartet. Whatever his endeavor, his pursuit was excellence. To Harry there were no problems only challenges. He met prostate cancer and bladder cancer with the same determination. Harry was the devoted and supportive husband of Barbara Faucher for 65 years. His children will remember him as being fun, strong in body and character, a great story and joke teller, and teacher of virtues. They would like him to be remembered as a man of integrity and humility. Harry was predeceased by his son, Bill (1969), and his wife, Barbara (2015)

He is survived by his son, Stephen (Carlene); daughters Valerie Colucci (Bill), and Diane Priest

(Mike); six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. The family would like to express their gratitude to Mission Hospice for their sincere, warm, and professional care in Harry's final months, they were a great comfort and support.

His rosary and funeral mass will be celebrated on Monday, April 4, 10:30am at St Therese Catholic Church 6016 Camino Rico, S.D. CA. 92120.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to: The Trinitarians of Mary 6702 Del Cerro Blvd. San Diego, CA 92120.
