

Jack Lee Costello

January 6, 1932 - February 13, 2017

SAN DIEGO — We are saddened to announce the passing of Jack, who fought a courageous, three-year battle with cancer. He died peacefully at home surrounded by his wife and children.

Born in Lincoln, NE, he moved to San Diego as a young child with his parents and five brothers, where he attended St. Augustine High School. Served two years in the Navy during the Korean War and earned a B.A. in Accounting from San Diego State College.

He married Patricia Worden on August 31, 1957, and reared seven children in Reseda, CA. He worked over 30 years as a Special Agent for the

I.R.S. and dedicated many hours of service to his local parish, St. Joseph the Worker, in Canoga Park, CA.

He was preceded in death by his first wife Patricia, in 2001, daughter Karen in 1977, and brothers Edwin and Donald.

He is survived by his wife, Astrid Perry-Costello; brothers Fr. Aquinas Richard, O. P., James and Paul; children Judith (Craig), Robert (Shalona), Mary (Michael), Marcia (Richard), Steven (Carri Collins) and Matthew (Jennifer); grandchildren Wesley, Christopher, Jessica, Kaitlyn, Jordan, Owen and Jaclyn; stepchildren Stephen (Patty), Michael (Julia), Misty (Todd), step-grandchildren Mikailin, Logan, Luke, Lex, Rachel, Aiden and Liam.

The family wants to express a special thank you to Carri Collins for her hard work and loving dedication to the comfort of our father during his last hours.
